Annual Glenwood Festival Celebrates New Park Opening

Chattanooga, TN— The Glenwood community and Hope 4 Chattanooga will kick off this year's annual Glenwood Festival, formerly the "Taste of Glenwood," on Saturday, October 11th, at 9:00am with the grand opening of the Oak Street Park on the corner of Oak Street and Glenwood Drive.

The festival will continue at the Glenwood Recreation Center on Vermont Street from 9:00 am – 2:00 pm. Several activities will be available including an Astro-Jump, three-on-three basketball, wood cutting, free health screenings, and plenty of food and music for everyone. Participants will also be able to shop at the flea market on location.

The Oak Street Park development was made possible by generous support from Memorial Hospital and New City Fellowship Church. The property that the park occupies was donated by Habitat for Humanity of Greater Chattanooga. Community, sponsor, and City representatives will be present for the opening.

Please contact Sam Manning of Hope 4 Chattanooga at 698-4733 for more information.
