

Community Development Advisory Board

Board meetings are held:

- The board meets when there is a need to review and approve funding and reports to HUD, to review applications from local organizations and make funding recommendations.
- The board convenes every September to plan for annual allocation of funding. The board meets for one week in January to review funding request, and again the following week to vote on funding recommendations.
- The board meets a minimum of four times annually
- Board meetings are held in venues accessible to the public, typically in
